

Yukon Mine
Training Association

The Yukon Mine Training Association wishes to extend its heartfelt congratulations to the graduates of the inaugural Environmental Monitoring Program. These First Nations students completed an intensive five-week course and are now certified at a pre-technician level in the basic skills and knowledge to participate in environmental monitoring in the mining/exploration sector. Good work!